

Plan Auction of Articles

Sheriff E. W. Biscailuz announced an auction sale of personal property, which has not been claimed or identified by owners, to be held in the basement of the Hall of Justice on June 19 and 20.

The public notices is given pursuant to the Penal Code and the Los Angeles County Administrative Code to the effect that personal property in possession of the Sheriff of Los Angeles County, State of California, which has been held for the legal period and has not been claimed or identified by owners, will be sold as is, at auction in two separate lots, for cash, lawful money of the United States, to the highest bidder.

Auction will begin at 9 a.m. both days.

PERFECT EYES
Only about two per cent of the American people have perfect eyesight.

RADIO STUDENTS IN FINAL ASSIGNMENT

Radio students at North High will undertake their final assignments tonight at commencement when they man the public address system.

A group of NHS boys have spent the past year providing music on record and comment for Saxons during noon hours and snack periods on the campus. The radio enthusiasts are Ken Wicks, Larry Lutz, Mike Schneider, Don Myers, Ray Davis and Gary Ledwidge. The group also operated sound equipment at sports events and various other school activities. They learned broadcasting techniques in Tom Jones' audio-visual classes.

GLUE STRENGTH
The tensile strength of the best grades of wood-jointing glue has been found to range from 5,000 to as much as 10,000 pounds to the square inch.

SUNDAY MISHAP... Mrs. Wilma W. Thornason, 58, of Los Angeles, received minor injuries when this brand-new car turned turtle and flipped into a field Sunday afternoon on Pacific Coast Hwy., west of Hawthorne Blvd. Police reported that the auto, driven by Mary Margaret Wade, 51, of Santa Monica, left the road after the driver apparently tried to change lanes. The car was damaged on the left side and top, officers reported.

Hatfield Key Speaker at Harbor JC

J. Rayburn Hatfield, dean of student activities, Harbor Junior College, will deliver the principal address at commencement exercises to be held at the college tonight.

The topic of the address will be "The Will to Win."

Thelma Marie Radun, graduating Delta student, has been selected to give the student address on the topic, "Man's Dual Role in Life."

The invocation will be delivered by the Rev. Clifford Young, pastor of the Grace Baptist Church in Wilmington, while the benediction will be given by the Rev. Harold F. Essert, president of the San Pedro Ministerial Assn.

The opening processional number and the closing recessional number will be played by Gaynor Morphew, organist. A musical selection will be given by Gloria Radmilovich, Joanne Hinchaw and Diane Barnes. They will be accompanied by Janet Barnes.

Park Building Nears Finish

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn reported yesterday that the new community recreation building at El Nido Park is now nearing completion.

With only a few last-minute details and the finish painting yet to be accomplished, the $21,000 building should be ready for occupancy in another two weeks.

Supervisor Hahn also stated that a number of items of playground equipment should be installed in the park by the time the building is completed.
